

Health or Karma

How a Rubik's cube saved someone's life

Scene 1

Dirty Dave walks down the corridor

Rick Brockton and his minions came and start to call him names and bully Dave

RICK

Move out the way – Dirty pig!

DAVE

No

I was walking here first

Chad

Say that one more time

DAVE

No I was walking here first!

Bullies circle around him and snatch his phone

DAVE

Please stop

RICK laughs

RICK

You messed with the wrong person Dirty boy

Rick pours his bottle of water over dirty Dave.

They walk away and Alicia throws his phone onto the floor.

The bully's walk away

Healthy Harmony and Comedy Charlotte appear as Dave picks up his phone

HARMONY

Hello Dave. I am Healthy Harmony!

CHARLOTTE

Hello there Dave. I am Comedy Charlotte!

DAVE

What do you want?

HARMONY

We are here to give you advice so that what happened to you just now, doesn't happen to you again!

DAVE

So are you going to show me how I can beat Rick and his minions by getting them all into a wrist-grip and bashing their heads together?

HARMONY & CHARLOTTE

Definitely not!

HARMONY

We do NOT promote violence as part of a healthy lifestyle.

CHARLOTTE

Rather than trying to beat Rick and his minions into submission, have you thought of getting into showering?

HARMONY

By brushing your teeth, actually using soap and have you heard of deodorant?

CHARLOTTE

Spending less time on gadgets and Learning to respect your body more. You might find that you might make more friends?

DAVE

I don't have any friends!

HARMONY

That's the point. Don't you think you need to be more balanced with how you spend your time, so you live an overall Better lifestyle?

DAVE

No I don't! They were the ones Bullying me!

CHARLOTTE

Yes, but if they see you change your lifestyle and clean up, smell better, they might change the way they treat you, and give you a break.

DAVE

Huh. Thanks for your advice, but I am not interested in all that Hygienic lifestyle crap!

Dave storms off leaving Harmony and Charlotte pondering.

Scene 2

Exterior: Street - Day

Dave walks along eating crisps, talking to us straight at camera.

DAVE (stuffing crisps in his mouth)

This is my ninth packet of crisps today. My stomach hurts, but trouble is, they taste so good.

Suddenly Dave appears to be in discomfort. Dave grabs his stomach in pain as Rick and his minions approach. They laugh at Dave's odd behaviour.

Alicia

Looks like Dave has stuffed his face again.

Rick grabs Dave who is still in pain and holds up Dave's half eaten Crisp packet.

RICK

Yep! Dave has overdosed on Ready Salted!

Chad (whispers)

It's cheese and Chives not ready salt...

Rick stamps on Chad's foot to shut him up

Dave breaks free from Rick's grip and runs into the middle of the road.

DAVE
Leave me alone!

The sound of car tyres screeching

DAVE
No!

Then a massive thud heard! Camera is focused on Rick and friends.

Scene 3

Healthy Harmony and Comedy Charlotte walk along a corridor.

HARMONY
So you heard what happened to
Poor Dave the other day?

CHARLOTTE
He got hit by a car. Serves him right!

HARMONY
How could you say that?

CHARLOTTE
He should have listened to our advice

HARMONY
Doesn't mean Dave deserves to be flattened like a pancake!

CHARLOTTE
It does if he is not willing to change.
I am not going to waste my time giving Dave good advice,
if all he is going to do is waste it.

HARMONY
What about if Dave starts to change,
I mean, I think this accident could be
Life-changing for him.

CHARLOTTE
Hmm? Well let's see...

Scene 4

We're 8 years in the future & we see a car arrive in a car park.
Someone approaches the car and the viewer see's that it's Rick. He knocks on the window, the window get's wound down

Rick
Excuse me have you got any spare change?

Rick suddenly recognises the man in the car

Dave
Rick? Is that you?

Rick

Yes. Dave?

Dave
How are you doing?

Rick
Well nowhere near as good as you by the look of it. What about you?

Dave
Things are good. I started a sanitiser company and of course with Covid and all that the profits have never been higher.
So what were you asking for I didn't quite catch it?

Rick
Oh nothing I thought it was this friend I knew. Thought you were someone else.

Dave
Oh ok, no worries. Have a good life.

Dave drives off

He stops for a moment and call out of the car

Dave
Oh by the way Rick. Thank you for your help. That car accident caused me to change for the better.

Rick walks off, depleted.

In the back of the car we see Healthy Harmony & Comedy Charlotte who are now working for Dave.

Healthy Harmony
Well isn't that, what the word?

Comedy Charlotte
I-Rick-onic?
